

"Deeds are not accomplished in a few days, or in a few hours. A century is only a spoke in the wheel of everlasting time." -Louis Riel

"Deeds are not accomplished in a few days, or in a few hours. A century is only a spoke in the wheel of everlasting time." -Louis Riel

"Deeds are not accomplished in a few days, or in a few hours. A century is only a spoke in the wheel of everlasting time." -Louis Riel

"Deeds are not accomplished in a few days, or in a few hours. A century is only a spoke in the wheel of everlasting time." -Louis Riel

The Métis Sash was traditionally used as a tool for various tasks (i.e., to carry things, as an emergency sewing kit). How many more ways can you think of?

www.rupertsland.org

Michif is one of the languages of the Métis people, with linguistic influences from the French and nehiyaw (Cree) languages.

www.rupertsland.org

The Métis capote is a hooded knee-length jacket made from a Hudson Bay blanket. It is often tied with a traditional Métis sash.

www.rupertsland.org

The Métis are known as the Flower Beadwork People. Why do you think this is?

www.rupertsland.org

"Deeds are not accomplished in a few days, or in a few hours. A century is only a spoke in the wheel of everlasting time." -Louis Riel

"Deeds are not accomplished in a few days, or in a few hours. A century is only a spoke in the wheel of everlasting time." -Louis Riel

"Deeds are not accomplished in a few days, or in a few hours. A century is only a spoke in the wheel of everlasting time." -Louis Riel

"Deeds are not accomplished in a few days, or in a few hours. A century is only a spoke in the wheel of everlasting time." -Louis Riel

The Métis flag is a symbol of nationhood. It is older than Canada's maple leaf flag by about 150 years.

www.rupertsland.org

York boats were an innovation by Métis people. These powerful modes of transportation were instrumental during the fur trade.

www.rupertsland.org

Métis fiddle music is unique and has a distinct rhythm and sound.

www.rupertsland.org

The cariole, a sleigh pulled by a horse or dog team, was commonly used for transportation in the winter.

www.rupertsland.org